Big names to host martial arts workshops and seminars at this years "Mega Martial Arts Weekend" in Atlantic City

PR9.NET October 06, 2004 - The Mega Martial Arts Weekend has just added several workshops and seminars to the largest martial arts gathering in the world. They are hosted by some of the most prestigious names in the martial arts and action film industries. These workshops and seminars are all included in the price of admission. So join such names as Tom Patire, Stephen Hayes, Michael DePasquale, Don "The Dragon" Wilson, Joe Lewis, Kathy Long and others as they give back to the martial arts community at this once a year event.

The 2005 Mega Martial Arts Weekend and Trade Show is hosted by "Action Martial Arts Magazine" the largest grass roots martial arts magazine in the world. It has grown to become the largest and most prestigious trade show and expo in the world of its kind and attracts thousands of action-oriented aficionados from around the world. The Mega Martial Arts Weekend will take place at the world famous Tropicana hotel and Casino in Atlantic City New Jersey from January 14th to the 16th, 2005.

About the Mega Martial Arts Weekend

The Action Martial Arts Magazine's "MEGA MARTIAL ARTS WEEKEND", at the Tropicana Casino & Resort has set the mark as a Premier International Martial Arts Event. Action Martial Arts Magazine and Creative Impressions Group Inc combined the worlds elite Film/TV celebrities; with the highest ranking martial arts "Movers & Shakers" from the 5 continents of the world. This 4-year-old annual record-breaking event has caused the martial arts community to refer to it as "THE ACADEMY AWARDS OF MARTIAL ARTS".

The Mega Martial Arts Weekend was created around Action Martial Arts Magazines record breaking Black Tie Banquet and the two-day Martial Arts Trade Show & Expo, created and produced with Pete Ticali, President of Creative Impressions Group and Alan Goldberg of Action Martial Arts Magazine, together they have established this event as both the largest catered event in Atlantic City history and one of the largest gathering of Martial Artists ever held anywhere.
