PR9.NET November 20, 2004 - NEW YORK, NY, (NAMC) -- Martial Arts Legend Bill "Superfoot" Wallace is slated to be a part of The Mega Martial Arts Expo in Atlantic City New Jersey in January 2005. "Superfoot" retired from professional karate as the undefeated PKA middleweight champion in 1980 after a 15 year competitive career. His awesome kick speed amazed martial arts fans worldwide, which was once clocked at over 60 mph.

Bill Wallace has competed in virtually every major competition of that era and was victorious in them. His most coveted wins are the U.S. Championships, ISKA Grand Nationals and the Top Ten Nationals. He has been inducted into the Black Belt Magazine Hall of Fame three times in seven years, twice as "Competitor of the Year" and once as "Man of the Year".

He has starred in several feature films such as "A Force of One" with Chuck Norris, "Kill Point" with Cameron Mitchell, "Continental Divide" and "Neighbors" with John Belushi, "Protector" with Jackie Chan and "A Prayer for the Dying" with Mickey Rourke.

He has authored three best selling martial arts books that every martial artist should have in their library, they are "Karate, Basic concepts and Skills" , "Dynamic Kicking & Stretching" and "The Ultimate Kick".

Other prestigious names that are slated to be in attendance are Martial Arts star Don "The Dragon" Wilson, 5 Time UFC Champion Frank Shamrock, "Italian Bad Boy" Chuck Zito, Phil Morris, Stephen Hayes, Michael Depasquale, Cynthia Rothrock, Joe Lewis, Kathy Long and more. Also being represented there are "Black Salt" and the "Martial Arts History Museum". The Mega Martial Arts Weekend will take place at the world famous Tropicana hotel and Casino in Atlantic City New Jersey from January 14th to the 16th, 2005.
