PR9.NET March 29, 2005 - Just days before the much talked about wedding of Charles and Camilla, Royal fever is hitting the UK! Those who don't get their own personal invite to the wedding in Windsor could try one of the latest 'royal packages' from short break specialist, Superbreak (www.superbreak.com). Packages include private tours of the Crown Jewel, Buckingham Palace and Clarence House combined with overnight accommodation.

PRIVATE TOUR OF THE CROWN JEWELS £159pp – Visit London on 30 April and enjoy a private tour of the Jewel House at the Tower of London to view the magnificence of the famous jewels away from other tourists, escorted by a Yeoman Warder (Beefeater). The price of £159 per person includes one night's bed and breakfast accommodation at the luxurious five star Grange City Hotel, superbly located with unique panoramic views of the city of London. The hotel is located very close to the Tower of London and has a superb health and fitness club with 25 metre swimming pool. Also included in the price is a guided tour of the Crown Jewels escorted by a Yeoman Warder (Beefeater) and coffee and Danish pastries in a private area in the New Armouries. Other dates throughout the year are available. Two share.

PRIVATE TOUR OF BUCKINGHAM PALACE £139pp – On selected Saturday's and Sunday's in August and September, enjoy a private tour of the State Rooms at Buckingham Palace – the official London residence of the Queen. The tour is guided by the curator of the Royal Collection and includes the State Rooms, the Ballroom and the garden. The price of £139 per person includes one night's bed and breakfast accommodation at the four star Rubens at the Palace hotel which is located opposite the Palace's Royal Mews entrance, a private guided tour, official guide book and a glass of wine in the Marble Hall.
