AgritourismWorld.com is now online, creating the Internet's only world-wide directory of Agritourism farms and ranches. AgritourismWorld.com provides a comprehensive search engine for tourists, and offers many services for farms and ranches. Agritourism is the fastest growing segment of the global tourism industry.

PR9.NET May 19, 2005 - Ithaca, NY -- AgritourismWorld.com contains more listings for Agritourism farms and ranches than any other public directory. A sophisticated search engine allows the tourist to search for a farm or ranch by keyword, by location, or by an excellent list of Agritourism specific categories.

Founder Christopher Grant states: "The Agritourism industry is exploding with growth. Tourists from abroad and local folks alike are heading to a local Agritourism farm for a safe, fun, and memorable experience. Farms and ranches are developing attractions, rides, activities, and mixing in fun and educational opportunities for everyone in the family."

Listings for farms and ranches are free. An Agritourism (or Agri-tourism) farm is any land-based farm or business that is open to the public. These specialized entertainment farms generally offer things to see, things to do, local products to buy or taste, and unique or handcrafted gifts. Some Agritourism destinations are open 365 days; some are only open for a few weekends in the fall. All offer a unique farm experience and are generally appealing to people of all ages and backgrounds.

AgritourismWorld.com also offers a comprehensive set of farm and ranch services, including web site design, programming, Internet marketing, logo design, advertising design, Agritourism consulting and more. There are numerous articles about Agritourism and tips on visiting Agritourism farms.

In today's world, people are looking for safe and low-cost entertainment for them and their families. Agritourism farms and ranches provide just that opportunity, providing a unique experience for young and old alike. AgritourismWorld.com is the Internet portal to everything related to Agritourism.
