SoftwareCasa, a leading software distributor in the Middle and Southern Europe and Neoxen Systems have signed a partnership agreement to bring Product Life Cycle and Project Management products and services to the European markets.

PR9.NET June 27, 2005 - "Neoxen Systems represents an exciting expansion of process management solution vendors to our core operating regions. Their Neoxen family of products perfectly extends our solution and service offerings with proven and highly cost-effective products.", says Begonia Diez, SoftwareCasa CEO. "As a multilingual distribution expert we are able to serve their European customers with the local languages, especially in the German and Spanish markets."

"SoftwareCasa is an excellent example of how modern resellers can utilize secure, customer-friendly and time- and cost-saving Electronic Software Delivery as their primary service model", says Esa Tervo, Chief Executive Officer at Neoxen Systems. "As a leading ESD distributor SoftwareCasa provides excellent visibility to our products but also great added value to our customers."
