INVITE the Worlds First Instant Messaging Networking Company Ads New And Exciting Features such as VIDEO & Voice Chat, Multi-Network Chat - Chat with your friends on different networks all at once, Share Files - Send and receive files from your contacts from all IM networks.

PR9.NET June 28, 2005 - INVITE is dedicated to providing a global e-commerce and instant messaging solution. With a patent-pending model, INVITE has harnessed these two powerful forces by creating the first and only "Instant Messenger that Pays".

INVITE has established alliances with hundreds of the most successful online vendors such as eBay, Google, Dell, Napster, BestBuy, Macys, Wal-Mart, Travelocity, and Matchnet to name a few. INVITE's Instant Messenger platform advertises these and other competitively priced INVITE branded selections of top Internet sellers such as online dating, travel services, website builder software, flowers and its exclusive FamilyConnect product.

INVITE's IM users are motivated to shop through the INVITE Messenger because they receive rebates on all of their purchases.

INVITE also offers more significant income producing opportunities through its Associate program.
