PostBidWin's online employment marketplace, aimed at the graphic design communities, is poised to become a leader in the industry.

PR9.NET August 09, 2005 - PostBidWin.com (<http://www.PostBidWin.com>) has officially launched its online Graphic Design Marketplace. By connecting graphic designers with buyers seeking to fulfill graphic design projects, each client will save time and money using PostBidWin's online services.

Graphic Designers can create a Design Portfolio that allows them to describe their experience and talents. Samples of their work can also be added to the portfolio. These members can then actively bid on projects posted by Buyers in order to secure freelance work. Designers can join for free and have the option of upgrading their accounts for enhanced services.

Buyers of Graphic Design can post freelance design Projects that are bid on by their roster of Designers. After reviewing the bids, the buyer can choose the designer that they feel will do the best job for the bidding price. Buyers also have the option of directly searching and contacting designers for any particular project. Buyer accounts are free and no commission fees are charged to either party.

With this cutting-edge employment marketplace now online, Designers and Buyers will soon be flocking to PostBidWin.com to take advantage of their services.
