Cape Town, South Africa: Leatt Corporation (Pink Sheets – LEAT), headquartered in Cape Town, South Africa, announced today that it has obtained a listing on the U.S. Pink Sheets quotation service with the ticker symbol "LEAT".

PR9.NET August 23, 2005 - The Leatt Corporation is the exclusive global developer and distributor of the Leatt-Brace™, a Prophylactic Neck Brace designed to prevent potentially devastating motor sport injuries to the cervical spine (neck). The inventor of the brace, Dr. Chris Leatt, is the President of the Leatt Corporation and is responsible for executing the company's global strategy. Dr. Leatt is a qualified medical doctor with experience in trauma and neurosurgery.

After serving as the Chief Medical Officer at many South African races over the past years, Dr. Chris Leatt has recently been appointed as Injury Assessment Officer for Motorsport South Africa, which further enables him to analyze the very type of injuries that he seeks to prevent with the introduction of the Leatt-Brace™ and associated products.

The Leatt-Brace™ has been under development and testing for the past three years. Extensive crash testing has been conducted at the Eurotype Test Center located at the South African Bureau of Standards (SABS, <http://www.dti.gov.za/thedti/sabs.htm>) and the product has undergone more than two years worth of real world testing by racers who have agreed to help develop the brace by providing their valuable feedback.

About Leatt Corporation, Inc.

The Leatt Corporation is the exclusive global distributor of the Leatt-Brace™, a Neck Brace designed to prevent or lessen the severity of potentially devastating motor sport injuries to the cervical spine (neck). The manufacture and development of the core products currently take place at the Leatt Corporation's offices in Cape Town, South Africa, which are situated at the headquarters of the Leatt Brace Holdings (Pty) Ltd.

The impetus for the project came from Dr. Chris Leatt's medical knowledge, his history as a motorcycle racer and the many neck injuries he has witnessed. The product not only has motor sport applications, but the Company believes that it can be used by anyone wearing a crash helmet as a form of protection. The inventor of the brace, Dr. Chris Leatt, is the President of the Leatt Corporation and is responsible for executing the Company's global strategy.
