Caelo Software Inc., an 'email productivity' software company, announces the release of a brand new product - NEO Free. Now everyone can experience the power and productivity of NEO for FREE!

PR9.NET October 05, 2005 - VANCOUVER, BC - This free downloadable software (for Outlook) has the best features from NEO Pro; a 5-star top-rated product that has received accolades from Microsoft Press Inside Out, PC Magazine, The Wallstreet Journal, CNET, PCWorld and USA Today, to name a few.

This is a full-featured version with many significant enhancements and new features which 'auto-organize Outlook email; NOT trialware, NOT crippled and NOT ad-supported. NEO Free is a world-class product with huge potential to improve personal productivity. In addition to super-fast searching, NEO Free's 'auto-organizing' features make it totally unique and essential for Outlook users. For example:

- NEO Free implements 'wordwheel' functionality that will not be available in Microsoft products until the release of Vista;
- Automatically organizes email into correspondent folders, which display both sent and received email for all correspondents;
- Separates bulk subscription mail from correspondent mail for better prioritization.

* NEO 3.1 is now completely FREE! The NEO Pro product has also been upgraded and is still a paid product.

When asked why Caelo is giving away NEO Free, Caelo's Vice-President of Marketing, Terry Johnston said; "We know everyone will see the power of NEO and want to tell their friends and that will lead to upgrade sales to NEO Pro for people who want even more power."
