<http://www.ICADSales.com> announces additional ProgeSOFT IntelliCAD products within their new Online IntelliCAD Store at <https://www.shop.ICADSales.com>.

PR9.NET October 07, 2005 - Portland, OR, USA - ICADSales has released boxed versions of IntelliCAD, including printed manuals, and a USB dongle option for the acclaimed ProgeCAD 2006 Professional CAD software, and USB dongle options for the ProgeMEC Mechanical Design Software, and ProgeARC 2006 Professional, Architectural design software based on ArchT. The USB option allows the software to be installed on multiple computers with the USB Dongle able to unlock the software on the computer it is installed on. The Network License Manager option is also available allowing copies of IntelliCAD installed on multiple computers to share a license through your local network. These products complement the downloadable versions of ProgeSOFT software already available at <http://www.ICADSales.com>.

<http://www.ICADSales.com> is also offering free evaluation downloads of ProgeCAD 2006 Professional, ProgeMEC, the ProgeMEC Mechanical Design Software, and ProgeARC 2006 Professional, Architectural design software based on ArchT. Evaluation CD's can also be obtained free plus the cost of shipping and handling through the new online IntelliCAD store.

"ICADSales is proud to offer the full line of ProgeCAD software products through our new online store. The addition of the boxed, USB Dongle, and NLM versions of IntelliCAD gives the customer choices for obtaining alternative methods of Installation and Documentation." said Scott Hucke, President, ICADSales.com.
