Martin Yap, Canadian voice actor, narrator and movie trailer voice-over talent, has recently joined InteractiveVoices.com, the voice-over marketplace. Martin's superior artistry, bold Hollywood voice talents, and spine-tingling reads captivate and inspire audiences across Canada and the United States.

PR9.NET October 18, 2005 - TORONTO -- InteractiveVoices, (<http://www.interactivevoices.com>), the voice-over marketplace, is delighted to announce their new relationship with Martin Yap, a non-union Canadian male voice talent whose action-packed versatility, powerful pipes, and authoritative vocal presence thrill listeners in movie theatres and on television screens alike. Martin Yap, whose specialties include voice-overs for commercials, station imaging, and the quintessential movie trailer combined with his diverse multimedia offerings differentiate him from his peers and make him the voice talent of choice, hands down.

Martin Yap has a rich voice-over background, beginning with his career as a DJ on an FM radio station, a position he held for over a decade. Martin records voice-overs for television commercials, radio commercial voice-overs, radio and TV imaging voice-over packages, promos, id's, liners, and expertly delivers narration services comprising of documentary narration, voice-over for infomercials, sales presentations, product launches, marketing video voice-overs, and trade show video voice-overs.

Working from his home studio, Martin can deliver voice-over projects in record time, usually within 24 hours of his client's go ahead. True to his Canadian nature, Martin is polite, a pleasure to work with, and is genuinely interested in making each voice-over project that he works on a success. Co-owner of a 2D/3D Animation House, Seven Animation Creative Studios Inc, Martin is capable of providing an array of animation services in addition to his all-encompassing voice talents.

VP of Marketing Stephanie Ciccarelli says, "Martin Yap is a glorious addition to our team of professional voice-over talents at InteractiveVoices. His elaborate talents and sunny personality embody the essence of the ideal voice talent, always giving impeccable service with a smile."

Martin has a personal web page at the InteractiveVoices.com site, <http://martinyap.interactivevoices.com>. Martin also has a business website where he can be reached: <http://www.martinyap.com>
