Announces free video production contest

PR9.NET October 20, 2005 - MANCHESTER, NH – Non-profit organizations in New Hampshire have a new friend. Heartwood Media, an award-winning video, TV, and multi-media production company based in Manchester, NH, recently announced the creation of the "Heartwood Non-profit Challenge".

The Heartwood Non-Profit Challenge seeks to find a New Hampshire based non-profit organization in need of video or television production. The winning organization will receive a complete video production from Heartwood Media, free of charge.

Non-profit organizations from across New Hampshire are invited to apply. After a review and selection process, the winner will work with Heartwood Media to create a video program, TV commercial, CD, DVD or web video, depending on the organization's needs.

"There are so many organizations doing great work, and a video can be a great tool to spread the word" says Chris Conroy, Creative Director of Heartwood Media Inc. "We're looking forward to working with an organization that has a clear idea about their message, and knows how that message can help their cause.

The deadline for applying to the Challenge is January 15th, 2006, and any New Hampshire based 501(c)3 organization is welcome to apply. An application form is available online at <http://www.heartwoodmedia.com/challenge>.
