Sqedunk Children Productions receives the Accolade Award for their newest early childhood exercise video.

PR9.NET November 02, 2005 - Nesbit, MS, Lori Reeves aka "Miss Lori", of Sqedunk Children Productions, has won a prestigious Honorable Mention Award from the 2005 Accolade Competition. The award was given for Sqedunk's newest video Get Fit with Sqedunk a fun, early childhood, exercise video, which will teach the youngest of children the most basic of exercises.

Get Fit with Sqedunk features Miss Anna, Sqedunk's Athletic Director, instructing 14 easy exercises to Sqedunk, Miss Lori and a dozen of Desoto County's Children. Silliness, music and funny sounds make learning to exercise a blast!

"We are thrilled to be honored with an Accolade Award", states Lori Reeves. "We hope this award will help to get the word out on the importance of exercising as a young child." "Keeping it fun and easy now will help instill fitness as a life-long routine. Children need some extra encouragement in learning how to stay healthy and fit! Especially in this day and age!"

The Accolade Competition was created to honor and give recognition to outstanding craft and creativity in film, video, television and commercials. Entries are judged by highly qualified professionals in the film and television industry. Information about the Accolade and a list of recent winners can be found at www.accoladecompetition.org.

In winning an Accolade, Sqedunk Children Productions joins the ranks of other high-profile winners of this most sought-after award. Thomas Baker, Ph.D., Competition Chairperson, had this to say about this year's competition, "The judges are pleased with the exceptionally high quality of entries in the 2005 Accolade Competition. The winners of this coveted award are truly among the best in their industry. The Accolade sets the standard for creativity and craft."
