The pixel advertising craze continues as MillionPixelClick.com provides pixel 5 year advertising solutions to boost their client's web sites.

PR9.NET November 16, 2005 - The recent launch of the new 5 year advertising solution from MillionPixelClick.com means the pixel advertising craze will continue unabated. Selling advertising space by the pixel the new form of advertising is proving popular with both clients and providers alike.

Designed to boost traffic, an image is placed on MillionPixelClick.com with a link to your website. These pixels will be visible for at least 5 years. Pixels are available in 100 pixel 'blocks', with each block measuring 10x10 pixels, equating to a cost of $0.5 per pixel. The homepage is divided into 10,000 of these blocks. You can buy as many blocks of pixels as you like, as long as there are some available. After you buy pixels, your image and link will be published on the homepage immediately. We provide you with the new form of advertising solution which makes your website get more traffics and more clicks.

"The power of pixel advertising is in the price", explained Lake Kern CEO of MillionPixelClick, "You can't buy 5 years of advertising in any media for such a cheap price".

Pixel space is available immediately for sales to quality web sites. MillionPixelClick.com condone adult, obscene or offensive websites and will not place adverts for them. If you have questions of buying our pixels, please feel free to visit our website.
