AustriaTravel.ws announces that they still have spaces open for their exciting 2005 Christmas Tour program in Salzburg and Linz, Austria. The tour is fully escorted by Personal Chef Karin Winkler of Joshua Tree, California. Winkler is a Salzburg native specializing in new Austrian cuisine and wants to share with you the love for her native's country traditions and music. You will experience that Austria is truly one of the world's most beautiful places. With an extremely low tour member size of only '6', she assures each participant her best possible attention and invites her tour members to take part in a very special Austrian Christmas tradition, designed to stir the senses.

PR9.NET November 21, 2005 - Tour Host and Personal Chef Karin is taking pride in showing her tour members true Salzburg adventures as well as preparing a special traditional Salzburg Christmas dinner in a private home amidst candles, fruit, handmade ornaments and a traditionally decorated Salzburg Christmas tree where a lovely surprise Christmas gift awaits them.

Among the highlights of the tour program is visiting the famous Salzburg Christkindlmärkte, the fortress, castles and other historically significant places; dining in selected restaurants; visiting churches, museums and the traditional Schranzenmarkt (farmers market); staying in a lovely and comfortable Gästehaus (hotel); enjoying 3 classical Mozart music concerts; a visit to the Stille Nacht - Heilige Nacht (Silent Night - Holy Night) museum in the country; a "Salzburg city at night" tour; having Austria's famous coffee and pastries in beautiful old coffee houses.

This years 9 day Christmas Tour program in Salzburg and Linz is scheduled for December 23 to December 31, with departure from the United States at December 22, 2005.
