As one of a few most proud features apart KanXiQi.com from the rest, comfortably at home via Internet, travellers can choose private tour guide of their very own favor, by maximum online information including photo, bio and multimedia file, which delivers much deeper information allowing better decision for candidate nomination.

Serving independent travellers from all over the world, KanXiQi.com's unique private tour guides enable 100% customized experience for the clients, including choosable private tour guide, choosable rate, one-to-one attendance and tailor-made itinerary.

This Beijing-based private tour guide service provider is aiming at world's strong demand for China travel, 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing and 2010 World Expo in Shanghai.

This company was established in 2001 and had spent a few years to business tune-up around private assistant service, and finally fixed to travel & tourism sector, by launching KanXiQi.com in Chinese language in June 2004, and in English language in October 2005 - it has created a very streamlined and efficient operation that starts with its brand-new private tour guide service.
