SISCOM, a regional provider of information technology and marketing consulting solutions, today announced the launching of its new state-of-the-art portal implemented on Quantum Art's QP7 Enterprise.

PR9.NET December 06, 2005 - Quantum Art's QP7 is a content management solution that serves shared needs completely, and accommodates fundamental differences capably. The solution framework provides core functionalities applicable to any industry, with modular extensions for specific needs. QP7.Enterprise is an optimal solution for dealing with structured content on the web and across an information-driven organization. It provides organizations with a platform for capturing, transacting with, and publishing multiple types of dynamic data.

SISCOM's improved web presence has positioned it a step closer to realizing its objective of making technology and marketing meet through advanced IT, consulting and marketing services. SISCOM will be able to more clearly communicate the true value of its multi-faceted portfolio of web services to all interested parties, corporations and businesses. SISCOM works hand-in hand with clients to help them achieve their targeted objectives. Through the portal, SISCOM offers innovative e-marketing techniques and leveraging powerful technologies to assist clients to better exhibit their competitive advantage and edge against their competition.

"With the creation of our website we have created a solid steppingstone for our presence in the cyberspace. Our in-house designed, technically integrated and implemented portal is but a live example of the experience, professionalism and dedication which we promise and deliver to our clients and prospects. Our imprints are clear for all to see," said Bishr Al-Madani, SISCOM Marketing Manager. The use of QP7 as a pioneering content management system played a fundamental role in streamlining the whole project and in assisting us in fully attaining the objectives behind creating a new Portal for SISCOM." Added Mr. Al-Madani.
