H.Samuel introduces its latest wedding collection, for the bride, groom and all of the wedding party

PR9.NET December 08, 2005 - H.Samuel's latest wedding collection is a comprehensive range of stunning engagement rings, wedding bands and jewellery. It also features stylish gifts for the bride, groom and wedding party.

Your engagement and wedding rings are the most significant pieces of jewellery you'll ever own. So, why not choose them from the Forever Diamonds collection, exclusive to H.Samuel. A Forever Diamond is cut with 73 facets, making it brighter, more brilliant and more beautiful than the average diamond which has 58 facets. Every Forever Diamond ring is independently certified for its colour, clarity, carat and cut.

The beauty of a Forever Diamond ring is not only on the outside. Hidden within your ring is a secret diamond, set inside the word "FOREVER", that only you will know about.

The Forever Diamond collection includes engagement rings and wedding bands in platinum and 18ct white and yellow gold. And new this season are exquisite pendants and earrings in timeless designs – all set with the secret diamond. Prices range from £149-£6,000.

Choosing the right accessories for your wedding gown is an important part of planning your special day and H.Samuel has a range of wedding jewellery to suit every bride. Go classic in breathtaking diamonds or shimmering pearls. For a contemporary look, choose from an irresistible selection of jewellery in the very latest styles.

The prettiest bridesmaids sparkle in gorgeous jewellery set with stones in shades of pink, blue or lavender. Cufflinks in a range of funky or traditional designs add the finishing touch to your best man.

Thank your wedding party with a gift they'll always treasure. Choose from stone-set compacts and trinkets, Ben Sherman accessories and watches from the hottest brands.

Make your magical day last forever with something special from H.Samuel.
