i4Market, LLC today announced the launch of their new web portal with various free tools for internet marketers, seo's, web design firms, 30,000+ articles and much more.

PR9.NET December 11, 2005 - Manchester, NH - i4Market Launches New Web Portal Featuring Web Tools, Articles and More, answering many questions that online marketers and webmasters will find invaluable.

i4Market has released a new website featuring 30,000+ articles about web design, business, internet marketing, computers and Internet. The site also features many web tools for internet marketers, designers, network managers and more. Tools such as their Link Popularity Tool will show you the number of web pages on the Internet that contain links to your website on Google/AOL, Yahoo!, AllTheWeb, AltaVista, Fast, MSN, HotBot/Inktomi and will compare your results to 3 of your competitors. Link popularity is one of the best ways to measure your website's online visibility. Link popularity refers to the total number of links or "votes" that a search engine has found for your website from other sites and yours.

The new i4Market web portal also features thousands of articles on topics such as Business & Finance, Computers & Internet, Online Marketing, Website Design & Development, and various non-related topics such as Family, Automotive, Home and Garden and much, much more.

Other features of the new portal includes the new i4Market Toolbar with some nice features like Google Search, Popup Blocker, Page Zoom and Page Shrink... yes, that's right you can actually zoom and shrink the entire page of websites including graphics and pictures with 1 click. Click once and the page gets bigger, click again and again to increase or decrease the size to your comfort level. This handy little feature is great for web designers and especially the vision impaired where a multi-level zoom is a welcome advantage. More Info at - <http://www.i4market.com/toolbar/>
