What better way to capture the heart of your sweetheart this Christmas, than to give them the gift of love in a beautifully written love letter. Love letters stand the test of time and warm the heart for years to follow. This Christmas, give the most romantic gift of all, a christmas love letter to be cherished forever. LoveLettersNow.com makes it easier than ever to write the perfect Christmas love letter.

PR9.NET December 11, 2005 - "This Christmas give a gift that will last forever, a love letter from your heart," recommends Romance Coach, Leslie Karsner, PhD. For centuries, sweethearts have expressed their love with love letters. Yet in recent years, fewer love letters are being written.

Karsner is out to resurrect this romantic tradition. "With LoveLettersNow.com, I've created a tool to make love letter writing easier than ever. So there are no excuses for not sending your darling a love letter they'll treasure for a lifetime," says Leslie Karsner, creator of LoveLettersNow.com.

The site offers its clients almost 300 pre-written love letters that can be easily e-mailed to your loved one, copied into your word processor or written by hand. With love letters for every occasion, Karsner's collection of love letters includes categories like Christmas, Love On-line, Long Distance Romance, Wedding and I'm sorry. The love letters can be edited and personalized to include intimate sentiments from the sender.

Amidst challenging economic times and world turmoil, the time for sharing love couldn't be more perfect. Love letters are inexpensive yet tangible gifts. If you have a pen and paper, or even e-mail, you can create a magical gift sure to spark the romance in any relationship.

So what about the fact that these love letters are written by someone else.

Karsner explains that it's the same as buying a greeting card at the store. "Sometimes the words couldn't be more perfect than if you'd written them yourself. Our love letters serve as inspiration, format and encouragement to romantics everywhere that want to write love letters, but aren't good at putting their thoughts on paper."

Most admit that trying to figure out what to say in a love letter is the hardest part. The collection of love letters at LoveLettersNow.com will get you off to a great start, and finish it off for you, as well.

Tips from LoveLettersNow.com for delivering your Christmas love letter:

1. Roll your love letter into a scroll, tie with a red ribbon and set it amidst the branches of the Christmas Tree.
2. Use a calligrapher or a fancy font, print your letter on holiday paper and frame it so it becomes part of the Christmas decorations for years to come.
3. Place your love letter inside of tin of Christmas mints. Mention in your letter you can't wait for a kiss.
4. Hide your love letter inside a pair of gloves. Wrap it with a scarf to truly warm their heart and soul.
5. Give a keepsake box with the promise that this is the first of many more love letters to come.

Sending a love letter is a sure way to warm the heart of your sweetheart this Christmas morning, and LoveLettersNow.com makes it easy to do.
