Right now millions of Americans are on the search for the perfect gift for that special someone. <http://www.bizymoms.com> shows moms how to sell their specialty products and services to all those merry shoppers.

PR9.NET December 17, 2005 - According to the National Retail Federation (NRF) Americans will be spending $738.11 on holiday gifts this year. Thanks to the site <http://www.bizymoms.com>, moms are learning how to tap into that market to make some of that money this Christmas.

Thanks to Bizymoms.com, Lee Ann Howes, owner of Kids Keepsakes, has learned how to create special personalized letters for kids from Santa. Howes Purchased a Bizyletter career kit from Bizymoms in November and is already making money. Howes is already getting thank you's from satisfied customers like the following, "The girls LOVED the letters! They were so thrilled and excited, they could concentrate on nothing after reading them. Lee, you are doing a great thing for all kids this Christmas. Thanks."

Last week during a live Bizymoms.com teleconference, Liz Folger, founder of Bizymoms.com gave away a Bizymoms Welcome Service Career kit. The winner was Caroline Parsons from South Carolina. Parsons says, " I am absolutely thrilled to be the winner. I have wanted to have my own business for many years and this is a dream come true. Santa definitely came early this year."
