Maple River Winery, in historic downtown Casselton ND, is proud to release their three new seasonal wines, Apple Mint Wine, Honey Apple Wine, and Honey Raspberry Wine.

PR9.NET December 19, 2005 - The Maple River Winery, located in historic downtown Casselton, North Dakota is proud to release three more handcrafted North Dakota wines. The winery that originally brought you the world famous Apple Jalapeno Pepper Wine as well as the traditional Chokecherry and Rhubarb wines, proudly presents to you our Apple Mint Wine, Honey Apple Wine and Honey Raspberry Wine.

North Dakota Apple Mint wine is a careful blend of hand-picked North Dakota apples with North Dakota commercially grown peppermint and spearmint from a farm near Northwood, North Dakota to produce this semi-sweet wine. It is the perfect wine for entertaining guests or serving with light pasta dishes.

North Dakota Honey Apple Wine is a semi-sweet wine created with a delicate blend of 60% honey wine and 40% apple wine. With North Dakota ranking either 1st or 2nd in honey production annually, Maple River Winery's Honey Apple Wine has become a very popular wine in the Midwest. It is the perfect wine for serving with heavy pasta dishes as well as many varieties of salads.

North Dakota Honey Raspberry Wine is a semi-sweet wine produced with North Dakota honey and farm-fresh raspberries. Maple River Winery's Honey Raspberry Wine is perfect for romantic nights as well as enjoying with white and light red meats.

Maple River Winery provides online secure ordering via its website at www.mapleriverwinery.com. Phone, fax and mail orders are also accepted with more information available on Maple River Winery's website.
