PR9.NET December 18, 2005 - According to Mr. McLoud of TopShelf Teas, "gift givers are always searching for unique gift ideas." In his words, "beautiful, hand-crafted, wood and silver plated containers filled with high quality Darjeeling, "The Champagne of Teas" makes a perfect gift idea." Whether you are looking for a "Thank You", corporate, house warming or Christmas gift, you will find it in their online store at: <http://www.topshelfteas.com> . They claim, TopShelf Teas, makes "Unique Gift" giving easy!

The gift items in their online store are all imported from India. He said, "our supplier in India was the only tea vendor invited to show case their gourmet teas in exquisite containers to President Clinton and his delegation during their trip to New Delhi, March 21-22, 2000. In fact, you can own the same Hand-Painted Brass Jar (Item: B1001) Dorothy Rodham purchased for her daughter, Hillary Rodham Clinton."

Mr. Aldwyn Sealey of Palmer Township, describe some of the gift containers as "work of art". Customers say that they use the containers as decorative pieces to store their personal things after the tea is consumed. It is reported, that when the products are used as "Thank You" gifts, they serve as a permanent reminder of the giver's kindness and appreciation.

Beyond its obvious health benefits, Darjeeling, "The Champagne of Teas" is an exclusive tea usually reserved for India's high society. This is because it can not be grown or replicated anywhere else outside its native growing region of Darjeeling, India. It accounts for less than 1% of all tea harvested worldwide.
