PR9.NET January 30, 2006 - PRINCETON, NJ - A completely free web site that allows you to search for and find places for Swing dancing from New York to London to Melbourne and anywhere in between is online at <http://www.swingdanceandlindyhop.com>. This site has been growing steadily over the last year and a half with submissions from real studios, schools and instructors making it convenient and easy to find a place to dance no matter where you are.

Mike Davis the webmaster states that it there is no longer any reason to put off learning to dance or finding a place to dance no matter where in the world you might be.

In addition to running the site, he been a dancer for over 6 years and started it to make it easier for people who want to dance to find places to do so.

Currently, he has been running a monthly dance in Princeton NJ called the Jersey Jumpers for over 2 years now and has confirmed that many people have found his dance as well as other venues through reading press releases about events and finding their site on the web.

Finally, Mike makes these points:

If you are new to dancing and simply want to find out more on the subject, there are many free articles as well as useful dance move tips and pointers.

In addition, if you ARE an instructor or someone who runs a dance school, you can add your listing for free.
