Above1, a Singapore Web Design And Web Hosting Provider Offers FREE Web Hosting

PR9.NET March 08, 2006 - Singapore, Above1, a premier Singapore web design, web hosting and e-commerce solutions provider yet again launched an exclusive 3 months FREE Web Hosting for new customers who sign up for its web hosting plans. New customers who sign up for 1 year will automatically be entitled to an additional 3 months web hosting absolutely free.

This offer extends to all three of Above1 value for money web hosting packages. From personal, soho to corporate web hosting plans, Above1 has various web hosting plans for both individuals and businesses to suit varying needs. On top of that, the beauty of signing up with Above1 is that, there is a "no questions asked 14 days money-back guarantee" if the company does not meet customers' expectations.

"Despite having an overwhelming volume of sign-ups in the last 2 months, there is no room for complacency. We are yet again demonstrating that we would like to reward our customers with unparallel uptime and excellent customer service. Our customers come from all over the world, Singapore, Malaysia, Taiwan, Indonesia, Hong Kong, China, US and many other European countries. We feel flattered by the level of trust from customers who have never met us before", said Above1's Marketing Director, Vonda Lee.

Information about Above1, the company's services, and its value for money web hosting package starting at only $1.99/month, is available at <http://www.above1.com>
