Affordable small group tour honors one of the world's greatest composer and musician by visiting his birthplace for his 250th birthday.

PR9.NET May 10, 2006 - Joshua Tree, CA, - *Personal Chef* and Tour Host Karin Winkler of Joshua Tree, California, announces her exciting 2006 Mozart Music Tour program in Salzburg, Austria. The tour itinerary and activities highlight the unique expertise of Winkler: cooking 'new' Austrian cuisine as a Personal Chef, and her 'intimate knowledge' of the city of Salzburg and its culture, traditions and music as a Salzburg native. With a maximum of only 'six' tour participants, she assures each person her best possible attention. As a highlight, she invites her tour members into a private home to take part in a very *special Austrian dinner party*, designed to stir the senses.

Winkler says: "Let the beauty of Mozart's melodies speak to you as it did to generations for 250 years!" The tour offers *two sacred Mozart concerts*, *six classical Mozart concerts* and a *Mozart opera* at the Marionette Theatre additionally to *six dinners*, a Salzburg *city at night tour*, a *boat trip* on the river Salzach, two *trips to the country*, a *boat trip* on the St. Wolfgang lake and the *stay in a four star hotel*.

Winkler arranges small tour groups to make it easier to navigate through the city and to focus her attention on each tour member's individual wishes, tastes and well being. This makes it possible for her to guide her small group on an authentic experience of the location, society and culture. During the *10day/9 night journey* guests will also explore Salzburg's rich cultural heritage dating back to the Romans.

This years July Mozart Music Birthday Tour program in Salzburg is scheduled for *July 8th to July 17th*, with departure from the United States on July 7th, 2006. Complete details are available at the web site at:
