Advantage Conferences, home of the Millionaire Mindset Conferences. "If you want to become a millionaire, you must learn to think and act like a millionaire."

PR9.NET May 29, 2006 - Claudia Givens, of Mobile, Alabama, is now a Pro Rep with Advantage Conferences. "I have been in business most of my adult life and as with a lot of self-employed entrepreneurs, most of the income went back into the business and not a lot of thought went into planning for retirement. But now as the years have gone by I decided it was time to begin thinking about retirement. I began a search for a company that would allow me to continue my present business while building wealth for retirement and an inheritance (a legacy) for my children. Advantage Conferences, LLC fit that description."

Advantage Conferences, LLC is set up to be automated and simple, the Compensation Plan is "Rep" friendly, plus the product (the Millionaire Mindset Conferences) gives people a much brighter, more positive outlook on life. The speakers at these conferences are bona-fide millionaires who come from a variety of different backgrounds and industries to tell their stories, teach their deepest beliefs, and offer their most pertinent advice. This powerful, unique method pioneered by Advantage Conferences is the only sure way to genuinely capture the correct Mindset you need for dramatic advancement. "If you want to become a millionaire, you must learn to think and act like a millionaire."

Using the power of mentoring, this is one business that you don't have to do on your own...the infrastructure is firmly established for the Rep's benefit, and mentors and trainers help online, through email, over the phone and even in person. The Millionaire Mindset Conference delivers the exact information that will help you transcend your current situation. Armed with new Millionaire Mindset Thinking and Strategies, you, the entrepreneur, will now be prepared to truly gain control of your life and dramatically transform your financial situation!
