TheCelebrityCafe.com contests are internet famous, with so many to enter, so little time and a new contest seems to be just around the corner. Autograph pictures are a popular item.

PR9.NET May 15, 2006 - MALVERNE, NY – William Shater does it for fans and sometimes in public; so does Jack Black and Henry Rollins. They are the ones who authorize the autographed posters for their fans.

Editor-in-Chief and Publisher Dominick Miserandino is excited about this chapter in the website's history. He says, "Fans deserve appreciation for their loyalty, I wish we had an autographed posters for everyone of them." This is an acknowledgement that the stars would not be stars with an active fan base. You make it happen.

TheCelebrityCafe.com has been hammered in recent weeks by fan club members (or wannabes) who just can't get enough of their stars. Some wake up to their idol's face staring down from the ceiling; others want to be close to something the star had touched. In addition, signatures will become more valuable with time passing. Contests are being added all the time so check out which star is in the contest spotlight. Are you getting yours?
