PR9.NET June 26, 2006 - Fort Lauderdale, FL - Preconstruction Networks, a division of Adache Real Estate LLC continues to aggressively engage its real estate network by orchestrating a sales mission to Venezuela in order to engage face to face with many of the top Venezuelan real estate professionals. The sales mission will take place in June of 2006 for a period of several days. The agenda consists of meetings and presentations, which will highlight lucrative projects the company is currently focusing on.

The company will congregate with some of the most prestigious real estate professionals in Venezuela and continue to orchestrate real estate sales. Sofia Ojeda, a participant in the meetings, is one of Preconstruction Networks Latin American specialists, and will be joined by, Adam Adache, President of Preconstruction Networks and Adache Real Estate, LLC. Sofia comments on the upcoming event, "We are enthused about working with the Venezuelans, they are such an exquisite and educated buyer group." Preconstruction Networks has a network of brokers throughout Venezuela and various parts of the world. The company is not new to International markets and has sold to buyers and brokers everywhere. In addition, the company has worked with various organizations in the United States government to further expand its reach. Just last year the company participated in a trade mission to Colombia, headed by Florida's Governor Jeb Bush.

Sharing the spotlight in the Venezuelan meetings is Intercontinental Hotels, first condo hotel property being developed in Orlando, Florida, "Palazzo Del Lago". Palazzo is situated on 42 acres along the shimmering shores of Lake Bryan on International Drive and is strategically located just two minutes from Disney. The project comprises 585 "For Sale" condo hotel units and 994 for sale condominium units.

This is just one of many international sales missions that Preconstruction Networks will carry out, as Adam Adache states, "Adache Real Estate realizes the vast opportunity in international markets as the U.S. is always such an attractive place to invest, due to the economic and political stability." The real benefit is International real estate professionals are able to utilize Preconstruction Networks as a partner, helping them gain additional sales and commissions while ensuring that they are dealing with credible projects and reputable developers.
