PR9.NET July 06, 2006 - Toronto, Ontario -- Google AdWords has taken the business world by storm since its launch in 2002. The incredibly successful paid advertising service has generated record profits at Internet search giant, Google.

Every day hundreds of thousands of advertisers compete for customers on Google AdWords. Many advertisers, however, become frustrated with the AdWords learning curve. As a result, they are forced to hire consultants to manage their campaigns for them, or to buy expensive courses and try to learn enough to consistently create profitable campaigns.

Now all that has all changed.

George Kokolakis, a leading expert on Google AdWords, has launched a free online course for Google AdWords. The free course covers everything from the basics to more advanced strategies, teaching subscribers how to create successful and profitable AdWords campaigns.

"I grew tired of watching people waste their money on over-priced online courses," said Kokolakis. "There are a lot of con artists online selling useless information. This is why I am offering this free AdWords course. People will get the information they need and it won't cost them a penny."

"Making money with AdWords is easy if you know how," said Kokolakis. "Once people learn the proven strategies for using AdWords, their campaign's profitability can easily double or triple overnight. My course is perfect for anyone who wants to create successful Google AdWords campaigns."

"This is not a get rich quick course, or one that teaches tricks or gimmicks. It's not a sales pitch or a bogus come on. It teaches solid, proven tactics and covers everything from campaign creation and optimization, to competitor research and analysis. If you want a complete course on Google AdWords then this is for you, and best of all it's completely free."
