Book reviews rate Xlibris author's poetry collection an excellent read.

PR9.NET July 13, 2006 - Waltham, Massachusetts - Angel Logan obtained great reviews for her very first published book, Wings of an Angel. Logan's poetry collection represents hope and enlightens the readers to start looking for the answers to life's questions within themselves. Aiming to touch people's lives, Logan impressively got the thumbs up from the reading public paving the way to the amazing success of her self-published book.

Published December 2003 through Xlibris, Wings of an Angel seeks to inspire readers enabling them to relate to their own personal experiences. The audience will get to know the fundamental nature of moving on, pacing ahead and celebrating the magnificence of life through this splendid poetry collection.

Beverly Pechin from Reader Views stated "Wings of an Angel is a beautiful collection of poetry that gently relaxes one from the inside out and somehow within its few pages of beauty can bring you to an inner peace each time you open it. An absolute work of beauty."

Wings of an Angel may be purchased directly through Xlibris Corporation or Barnes and Noble.com, Amazon.com and Borders.com or through Baker & Taylor and Ingram Book Distribution.
