In recognition of booming sales and setting the industry standard for excellent customer service, SellMyTimeshareNOW announces the promotion of Jim Paone to Vice President of Sales.

PR9.NET February 13, 2006 - DOVER, NH -- SellMyTimeshareNOW is pleased to announce the promotion of Jim Paone from Sales and Advertising Manager to the Vice President of Sales. Jason Tremblay, co-CEO of SellMyTimeshareNOW, says, "Jim is an excellent asset to our company. He has helped us grow exponentially in the last year, something we expect will continue far into the future."

$92,376,910 in timeshare sale and rental offers were presented to SellMyTimeshareNOW's timeshare resale and rental advertisers in 2005. In the first half alone of 2006, $104,685,181 in offers were made.

Mr. Paone, who has been with the company since March 2005, says he is "Quite surprised, grateful, and tickled pink to be promoted. I'm not very big on titles, but the fact that the owners gave that to me demonstrates their confidence in me." Mr. Paone originally joined SellMyTimeshareNOW at a point when owners Jason Tremblay and Mark Eldridge were looking for someone to take the company to a new level, and Mr. Paone was looking for a company to develop. He is excited about the potential for growth that SellMyTimeshareNOW has, and that the timeshare resales industry holds.

Prior to working with SellMyTimeshareNOW, Mr. Paone had worked with companies as diverse as broadcast radio and financial services. It was this background with small businesses which gave him the experience and motivation to move on to an even more ambitious level. He manages with "the four E's, taken from Jack Welch, which are to have Energy 24-7, Energize others around you 24-7, have Enthusiasm, and manage the Execution of the game plan."

"I love the personalities behind sales, working with the customers and understanding them, working by phone, training others to do this and how to grow. Add to that the fact that the whole company is growing – I just love the whole dynamic. I am very excited about the opportunity to service the public worldwide in the timeshare industry and about taking care of a customer who has been mistreated for years. It's nice to see two business men who came into this marketplace to do what's right for the timeshare seller, buyer and renter."

SellMyTimeshareNOW is focused not only on doing what is right for their customers, but they are also focused on doing what is right for their employees. As Mr. Paone says "We moved the company from Hampton to Dover for special reasons. This area had been crippled in the job market. I knew there were plenty of good people up here working for far less than they were worth, family people. With SellMyTimeshareNOW, we've brought excellent wages and a super working environment to Dover and the surrounding area, and we will continue to do that and more. There is outstanding growth in this company."
