TR Cutler Continues as Manufacturing Journalist Contributing to Automation.com

PR9.NET July 17, 2006 - USA/Ft.Lauderdale,FL - More than 6000 visitors each day and nearly 200,000 visitors each month view Automation.com. The site is for manufacturers and suppliers of industrial, factory and process automation, motion control, machine control, process control and instrumentation products and services. Automation.com attracts engineers, programmers, designers, technicians and other professionals who specify, purchase and use control systems, software, robotics, sensors and other supporting products to automate machines, equipment and factories in both discrete and continuous manufacturing processes.

For a year now, Thomas R. Cutler, has been a contributing editor for Automation.com. Cutler, who founded the Manufacturing Media Consortium in 1999, has grown the participation from 300 journalists to nearly 3000 key clients, journalists, editors, trendsetters, and key business leaders worldwide. Cutler has authored more than 1000 articles for a wide range of manufacturing periodicals, industrial publications, and business journals including most of the leading monthly trade publications. Cutler is the author of The Manufacturers' Public Relations and Media Guide. Cutler was voted #1 Manufacturing Journalist for the third year in a row.

TR Cutler, Inc., (www.trcutlerinc.com), is the nation's largest manufacturing marketing and public relations firm, based in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. According to the website, "Cutler tells the extraordinary stories of manufacturers. There are great companies making great products. Cutler is quite vocal that there are too many manufacturers and companies serving the manufacturing sector that have simply neglected to tell their story. Cutler's goal is to tell these manufacturing stories in an interesting, dynamic, understandable, and relevant way."

Cutler also contributes to such publications as Quality Digest, Industry 2.0, Manufacturing.net, IFSQN, Manufacturing & Technology, Food & Beverage Journal, Software Magazine, Food & Drug Packaging, Food Quality, Fabricating & Metalworking, World Trade, American Machinist, Industrial Distribution, The Manufacturers, and hundreds of other leading periodicals.
