PR9.NET July 17, 2006 - OBERLIN, OH – Treasure-Adventure is challenging young, talented, and creative treasure hunters aged 6 to 17 years old to compete in its 2006 Kids Clue Design Contest which officially launched this week, and will remain open to receive entries through December, 2006. Entry is free, and the grand prize winners selected for the most clever clues from each of three age groups will be awarded $25 Amazon gift certificates, will receive online recognition, and their clue may even be published in an upcoming Treasure-Adventure print 'n' play party hunt game.

"We wanted a contest that would both encourage children to explore and expand their natural abilities in a fun and exciting way, and at the same time give them the opportunity to compete, persevere, and be rewarded for their hard work and talents just like adults," explained Kaydee Grant.

Kids can learn more about the contest and its rules, view samples, and submit their best creative rhyming and riddling clue design entries at <http://www.treasure-adventure.com/contest.html>.
