Deacom, Inc. recognized as one of the leading "Vertically Focused Companies to Watch" by Supply & Demand Chain Executive Magazine.

PR9.NET August 07, 2006 - WAYNE, PA - Deacom, Inc., producer of the DEACOM Integrated Accounting and Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) Software System for building component, prefabricated housing, process, and mixed-mode manufacturers, has been recognized as one of the leading "Vertically Focused Companies to Watch" by Supply & Demand Chain Executive Magazine in its June/July 2006 issue. Deacom was selected based on the accomplishments of its recent DEACOM ERP implementation projects.

The judging committee of the "Vertically Focused Companies to Watch," which consisted of the editorial staff and the editorial advisory board of the magazine, reviewed solutions across a variety of industries that both addressed the needs of companies of varying sizes, and assisted in the transformation of a diverse mix of the functions that make up the supply chain.

"At Deacom, we aim to go above and beyond the project goals of our building component and process manufacturing customers," says Jay Deakins, President of Deacom, Inc. "It's a privilege to be acknowledged by a leading business publication for doing what we do best - helping manufacturers boost both productivity and profitability through our single, integrated ERP solution."
