Indianetzone.com, the numero-uno educative and descriptive web portal of India, launches a website on Beauty.

PR9.NET August 12, 2006 - Mumbai, Indianetzone.com, India's most informative and illustrative web portal, launches <http://beauty.indianetzone.com>

<http://beauty.indianetzone.com> is the only web portal, which covers all aspects of beauty in detail. The site provides a thorough knowledge on keeping the body beautiful and healthy from head-to-toe. "Our aim is to make the user familiar with all the aspects of beauty, be it the make-up, hair care and even care for the hands and feet," says Mr. Umesh Modi, Editor, Indianetzone.com.

The site has 11 main sections namely Evolution of Beauty, Back Care, Bust Care, Eye Care, Make-up Tips, Face Care, Facials, Foot Care, Hair care, Neck & Shoulder Care and Hand Care.

The section on Evolution of Beauty contains the information on the history of the beauty, its power and its importance in today's world.

The Back Care section, as the name suggests, throws light on the exercises and some back care tips to be followed to have a strong back.

The section on the Bust care provides a detail information on exercises, the surgeries of breast and the different ways to balance the imperfections of the breasts.

The Eye Care section provides a guideline to make-up attractive eyes and the various ways to treat the eyes.

The section on Make-up Tips gives us a detailed information on the application of make-up on the face, nails, the make-up trends for the season and the various tips to keep the make-up last for more time. This section also provides the knowledge on the different make-up tools, without the use of which, it would be impossible to get the perfect look.

The Face Care section gives an insight on the general face care, its skin problems and moreover some natural skin care regiments, which one can follow at home.

The section on Facials, stresses on the numerous facial treatments either for special occasions or otherwise. Learn more about Aromatherapy facials and how to get them done while relaxing at home.

The Foot Care and Hand Care section gives an understanding of the different problems that these parts of the body are mainly contaminated with. Homely pedicures and manicures are suggested and even the treatments to clean them respectively to avoid further complications.

Different tips to achieve the shiny and healthy locks are suggested in the Hair Care section. It also includes the topics on hair problems, treatments, application of perfect shampoos and conditioners to balance the hair nutrients, hair colour and the different hairstyles & accessories to have the perfect good looking hair everyday.

The last section on the Neck & Shoulder Care gives tips on how to have long, slender neck and strong shoulders. Some neck and shoulder exercises if followed, it can provide an elegant posture.

The best feature of this site is that it is the only site where every bit of information regarding beauty is analyzed and presented systematically. "We want the users to have a glance into all the aspects of beauty," says Mr. Modi.
