Xlibris launches Executive Package this September.

PR9.NET September 11, 2006 - Philadelphia, PA – Xlibris is proud to announce the launching of its newest publishing package that will give a VIP publishing experience delivering the most extensive add-on and marketing services available – the Executive Package.

For the author who wants it all, the Executive Package, normally priced at $5999, is only $2999 this month. For this package, Xlibris will throw in 75 FREE trade paperbacks and 25 FREE hardback copies of your book. You also have the option to trade these hardbacks for 50 trade paperbacks, giving you 125 FREE copies of your book. This package allows you to customize your book's design to the fullest level possible without purchasing add-ons, as you get to interact with your personal designer. Copyediting service is included in the package. Your book will be available in trade paperback and hardback complete with Library of Congress and U.S. Copyright registration. On top of these, this package includes a set of marketing services: a press release to 500 media contacts, an email broadcast to 1,000,000 readers, a personal website making your book available 24/7 online plus printed materials (posters, bookmarks and postcards) to help you start with your publicity. Lastly, you get the opportunity to be reviewed via the Xlibris Book review Campaign Pro.

Why wait? Become an Executive today and be a part of the Xlibris family.

Why Xlibris?

In strategic partnership with Random House, Xlibris continuously gives writers the tools to become authors. It provides 24/7 book order and customer support and an open-ended, non-exclusive contract. Xlibris also has quality materials, selected quality printers and vendors for each book type. It is the only POD company offering two rounds of qualification and approval before publication complete and a money-back guarantee up to author copy stage. What sets Xlibris apart from the others are its high royalty payments and its monthly specials.
