This press release informs the readers about the re-launch of the Sues Health Center Web site and its latest discount offers on weight loss products.

PR9.NET September 12, 2006 - Richmond, VA. – Sues Health Center, the popular diet pills online store now has an all new web presence. The new, refreshing and striking web design encourages users to explore the site further. What is most appealing about the improved Sues Health Center Web site is that now it also has loads of informative articles that will help users to enhance their knowledge on diet pills, free advice rapid weight loss, free weight loss tips, weight loss secrets and much more.

The users can navigate the various Web site sections and find weight loss products with ease. The design team has worked diligently to make the design impressive and attention-grabbing. New content has been added and old content has been re-structured neatly. Visitors can also find 11 Top Secret Weight Loss Tips that has helped hundreds of people lose weight fast.

The new Web site promises better service and great discount offerings. Sues Health Center is currently offering a $39.95 product for only $14.95 and a 5 bottle special for $9.95 per bottle. The spokesperson of Sues Health Center affirmed how they are able to do that - "We consider the first purchase part of our marketing costs. We are practically giving away our product to increase our customer base." The spokesperson further said, "These super low prices won't last forever and are only available while we are in the process of building our customer base."

For those who are in doubt about the diet products the site sells, the Sues Health Center Web site gives authentic eBay feedback and information about products' ingredients. The site states that the weight loss products offered here are 100% safe and stimulant free natural products that will allow customers to eat fatty, party food occasionally without needing to feel guilty. The Carb Blocker uses botanical ingredients that support low carbohydrate diet. It inhibits the absorption of carbohydrates and sugar. Other diet pills products that customers can order here are Meta Gen- a dietary supplement, Nueslim-19 -a remarkable weight loss product, and Neweigh - a fast calorie burner.
