PR9.NET September 19, 2006 - Nicosia, Cyprus – Today, AVnex Ltd. has held a conference to publicize the newest free versions of their music editing software called Music Morpher.

Music Morpher Gold 3.0 and Music Morpher 3.0 can be securely downloaded on CNET at http://www.download.com/AV-Music-Morpher-Gold/3000-2170_4-10583619.html?tag=lst-0-1 and http://www.download.com/AV-Music-Morpher/3000-2167_4-10583196.html?tag=lst-0-2 respectively.

"The release of these two versions is to serve our users better. Although they lack some outstanding features in Plus versions, they can be best used for non-profit purposes, especially for fun projects," said Helen Le, AVnex Ltd.'s Sales and Marketing Manager.

According to Terry, Head of Audio4fun Lab, these new and free builds have significant upgrades compared to the March builds of Music Morpher products. Users can now use 3 free versions of MP3 Player Morpher, Music Morpher and Music Morpher Gold with no time limitation.

Together with releasing these two versions, AVnex Ltd. has launched special offers for new users to buy the highest edition Music Morpher Gold 3.0 Plus version at 30% off the list price. The coupon to buy this music editor software was exclusively attached in Audio4fun newsletter. Those who wish to receive the Newsletter can sign up at http://www.audio4fun.com/subscribe_form.htm.

The latest newsletter was also introducing the newest tips to create funny song parodies with Music Morpher Gold 3.0. The compilation of tutorials of Audio4fun products can be found at <http://mp3-player.audio4fun.com/free-online-tutorials.htm>. At present, the archive consists of 6 tutorials for Voice Changer Software, 20 tutorials for Music Morpher and 6 tutorials for Webcam Morpher.

Users who are still unclear about those tutorials or need further help with voice changing or music editing can contact Audio4fun Customer Support Team simply by sending an email.
