People who love casinos, entertainment-filled cities, and activities galore are flocking to Tunica, Mississippi by plane! Yes, by plane! Tunica is now the #2 fly in casino destination in the country, second only to Las Vegas.

PR9.NET October 10, 2006 - Tunica, MS – Tunica, Mississippi's southern charm and warm hospitality has earned a place in the heart of casino aficionados across the states. This great gaming city is the second most popular fly-in casino destination second only to Las Vegas.

Traditionally, Tunica is thought of as a drive-in casino destination like Atlantic City, NJ but in actuality, flying to Tunica has become increasingly popular. Ninety percent of the United States' residents live within three hours of gambling, but Tunica's warm climate has attracted visitors from around the country to this friendly city.

So much more than world-class casino gaming, Tunica, MS offers a myriad of recreational activities such as golfing, outlet shopping, or riverboat tours along the mighty Mississippi. The city also boasts a myriad of cultural activities like museums, the famous RiverPark, and quaint downtown streets lined with antique shops and intriguing boutiques. With ample dining and lodging selections from casual down-home cooking to extravagant fine dining, travelers to the region are sure to find something that delights their palate.

Overnight guests will marvel at the variety of rooms available, from grand casino suites to standard hotel rooms at properties like Sam's Town Hotel & Gambling Hall, Grand Casino Tunica, Gold Strike Casino Resort, Sheraton Casino & Hotel, Westgate Condo Resort, Sheraton Casino & Hotel, Delta Plantation Inn, America's Best Value Inn, the Cottage Inn, and so many more.
