The October issue of Image Chicago Magazine has raised the bar for Chicago entertainment and fashion magazines by scoring Janet Jackson as their cover model.

PR9.NET October 13, 2006 - Chicago II- IMAGE Chicago Magazine is proud to announce Janet Jackson as the cover model of the October Issue. Jackson is a legendary singer, dancer, producer and actress who usually only graces the covers of national publications. IMAGE Chicago Magazine is privileged to include a full feature article spanning six pages total along with candid photos. The October issue also has Brit-based platinum rock band, the Editors, and Grammy award winning Johnta Austin showcased.

The October issue of Image Chicago Magazine has raised the bar for Chicago entertainment and fashion magazines by scoring such huge international celebrities.

"To have Janet Jackson on the cover of our magazine is a tremendous milestone that we are very proud of. We will continue to pride ourselves on producing quality products and services, and continue to build our relationships around the world." Said Paul Sorkin, C.O.O of IMAGE Nationwide Companies and publisher of IMAGE Chicago Magazine.

About Image Chicago Magazine

Image Chicago Magazine was created in October 2005 by Entrepreneur Paul Sorkin along with Tino Corona and Omar Hussein. Their mission is to create an interactive website and magazine that offers tremendous insight about all that's happening in Chicago. The magazine has 2 different covers, one for men and one for women. They mostly work with clubs, fashion, models, musicians, actors, etc... and the primary demographic is young professionals between the ages of 21-45.
