There is a magical feeling about New York City in in the winter season. With bright lights twinkling in the streets, holiday music ringing throughout the city, and everyone spreading holiday cheer, New York City is a highly sought after spot for couples and families alike during this joyous time of year.

PR9.NET November 20, 2006 - New York, NY – There is a one-of-a-kind magic about New York City during the holidays. This magical feeling emanates in the hearts of all who visit. From the white lights, red bows, and tree displays to the warm gourmet foods and welcoming aura at the New York hotels, boutiques, and restaurants, it is a special kind of place.

Aside from the obvious shopping appeal in New York City and the lavish tree in Rockefeller Center, the streets of the Big Apple offer unlimited options for dining and entertainment in a city known for its holiday enchantment.

When shopping in New York City, there is something for everyone - novelty gift shops, famous stores like Saks Fifth Avenue or Bloomingdales, or discount stores like Century 21, the #1 discount store in New York City. While in New York City, shoppers should consider catching the spectacular Nutcracker at Lincoln Center, take a stroll down the famed Fifth Avenue, go ice skating in Central Park on a crisp winter day, marvel at the wonder of a Christmas show in New York City, or cuddle up next to a loved one in a romantic horse and carriage ride. Visitors will find it all in New York City!
