PR9.NET November 21, 2006 - Sanibel Island, FL – Sanibel Island Florida is a true beach-lovers paradise. With its sandy beaches just a short drive from the Fort Myers Florida airport, Sanibel Florida is gaining in popularity for couples and families alike for both its convenience and secluded ambiance.

Every hotel in Sanibel Island Florida has been completely renovated and offers sparkling new facilities because of the hurricanes last year. Each impressive Sanibel hotel, island resort, and charming inn is open and ready for business. Near some of the best shelling beaches in the world and boasting an incredible variety of more than 200 shells, Sanibel Island hotel accommodations are sought after by couples and families alike.

The Sanibel Island Florida area, situated serenely along the southwest Florida coast on the peaceful, sparkling turquoise waters of the Gulf of Mexico boasts countless things to see and do. Right next to Captiva, the United States' most tropical town, the barrier island of Sanibel Florida, overflowing with resorts for the rich and famous, was a stopover for Spanish explorers.

Sanibel Island FL boasts historic charm and a languid pace of life that is enhanced by the architecture featuring no building higher than the tallest palm tree. Travelers enjoy fishing from the pier, watching the gentle manatees cruise the waterways, visiting the Sanibel lighthouse, catching an incredible, breathtaking sunset, or relaxing under the stars on a palm tree lined beach. Another popular Sanibel Florida favorite brimming with an abundance of wildlife is the J.N. "Ding" Darling 6400 acre wildlife refuge. Theater, charming museums, and indoor and outdoor Sanibel shopping including those with local flavor, make for a memorable trip. Eighteen holes of championship golf, day cruising with the dolphins, 30 miles of bike paths, there is so much to see and do in Sanibel Island FL that visitors often stay for a week or more.

Sanibel Island is known for its restaurants with award-winning cuisine on every corner including fine Italian dining, old world Mediterranean cuisine, seafood, and the one-of-a-kind Mermaid Kitchen and Cake Factory. The Old Captiva House restaurant features exotically delightful dishes with flair like sautéed macadamia nut chicken or sweet chili rubbed halibut.

Travelers are certain to find that this charming subtropical paradise offers the perfect winter getaway.
