PR9.NET December 01, 2006 - Cincinnati, OH - In this holiday season as a business owner, is your time precious to you? Do you have more administrative tasks than time to do it? Would you like to free up your time yet still keep your business moving ahead profitably and in an organized atmosphere? Is the cost of hiring an employee and paying benefits just not worth the return? If you answered yes to any of these questions, what will you do to alleviate the workload and some of the pressures you are at in running a small business yet still turn a profit?

The solution is a simple one: Hire a Virtual Assistant.

Many businesses have a high percentage of vacation leave during this time. In addition, Ms. Tidmore understands that. "We want to alleviate the enormous amount of stress that comes from running a business especially during the holiday season. We want business owners to be able to enjoy it rather than suffer through this time!"
