When winter strikes, there are many great vacation getaways, but this winter, Punta Cana in the Dominican Republic will top the list with its fabulous Caribbean paradise and unparalleled seclusion.

PR9.NET December 08, 2006 - Punta Cana, DR – Rather than shivering through old man winter's seemingly endless cold spells, GoldenTravelGuides CEO, Rick Golden suggests families and couples consider seeking much-needed refuge in one of Punta Cana's world-class, comfortably-priced resorts this season.

Punta Cana, Dominican Republic is one of the Caribbean's hottest vacation destinations offering both couples and family resorts. Many properties offer exclusive deals through travel companies like US-based PuntaCanasBest.com during the winter months when business comes largely from European travelers.

A few of the Punta Cana hotels were designed by prominent Spanish architects and are sure to leave a lasting impression on even the most discriminating traveler. Punta Cana's resorts include all kinds of amenities ranging from delicious food, drink, and exceptional entertainment to sports activities, stunning pools, and business facilities.
