PR9.NET December 11, 2006 - NY, NY – BrabusRocket.Blogsome.com is proud to announce that after months of development, it has officially launched and is covering all news stories surrounding the new Brabus Rocket car.

The BraBus Rocket Car is the world's fastest sedan with a top speed of 362.4 km/h. Not only is this car one of the fastest in the world, it is also one of the most stylish with a body based on the Mercedes CLS. According to the web site, Brabus has been, "building the world's fastest street-legal sedans for several years running. This 'tradition' started in 1996 with the 330-km/h BRABUS E V12 and reached the next level in 2003 in the guise of the 350.2-km/h E V12 Biturbo." The newest Brabus Rocket features a twin-turbo BRABUS SV12 S engine and you can expect the next Brabus customized car to top this "Rocket."

BrabusRocket.Blogsome.com is the top site on the web for everything Brabus. The blog covers all of the latest news stories surrounding the car tuning and manufacturing company and is updated on a daily basis. The site is very cleanly laid out and everything is easy to find and use. Not only does BrabusRocket.Blogsome.com cover all of that latest news stories surrounding the car company, they also feature a full image and video gallery that is also constantly updated with new content. There have already been over a dozen images and videos of Brabus cars posted.

When asked why he created the web site, webmaster First Last said, "I run several car related automotive sites. All kind of tuned automobiles are featured on my websites, from private people and from big tuning companies. Sometimes there are cars that touch you deeply. The Brabus Rocket is one of those cases. So I wanted to concentrate all kind of information about this car in one place. So here I will post all press releases and news about Brabus Rocket, pictures, videos, etc. I will keep a section on other Mercedes CLS tuned cars, for the ones that like to compare."

You can visit the site and get all the information you need on Brabus at BrabusRocket.Blogsome.com.
