Out of tens of thousands of nominations submissions, Mobile Bridges is one the final nominees for the prestigious annual XBiz Award. Mobile Bridges is selected in the category 'Mobile Company of the Year' along with 9 contenders.

PR9.NET December 15, 2006 - Hoorn NH, The Netherlands - The jury was impressed by the excellence of Mobile Bridges' company operation and the demonstrated innovation capabilities during the year of 2006. Outstanding performance in the field of live SMS chat messaging and mobile content distribution has been a major issue in this respect.

Mobile Bridges, located in The Netherlands and Peru, provides an extensive mobile solutions-package. Like: 1-2-1 live SMS chat, mobile communities, SMS-to-TV interaction, distribution of mobile content and SMS billing.

"Maybe the jury also took into consideration that we definitely succeeded in upgrading our mobile services to a promising and profitable instrument in the entertainment industry", says Alexander Reus, cofounder and CEO of Mobile Bridges International.

A panel of entertainment industry professionals will appoint the final 'Mobile Company of the Year'. The XBiz Award-winning ceremony is scheduled for February the 8th in Hollywood, California, USA.
