PR9.NET December 16, 2006 - Aurora, CO USA - Scranton Creations, makers of Potty Training Rewards, announces that the United States Patent Office has issued a patent for Potty Training Rewards. Brenda Scranton, president of Scranton Creations LLC, stated, "By issuing the patent the patent office recognizes that Potty Training Rewards is a new and unique product to the potty training market."

Don't forget about our Buy One Get One FREE special. For a limited time, buy one Potty Training Rewards Boy or Girl at the regular price of 14.95 and we will send you a like Potty Training Rewards Boy or Girl FREE!!

Potty Training Rewards uses its advent-calendar style cabinet, a push button voice chip, along with visual memorization association to help teach the growing child how to use the potty. PTR comes in two versions, accommodating either the young boy or girl.

Each PTR consists of 24 individual windows containing a chocolate surprise. After the child has successfully used the potty, they press the push button, which gives them a congratulatory message, which says: "Great job you're a big boy (girl) now open a door and find a surprise!"

Under each chocolate surprise, a picture, which matches another on the exterior, is revealed. The child can then match the identical images, serving as a memory game.

Anyone wishing to seek more information, view an online demo or streaming video, they can visit the PTR web site at www.pottytrainingrewards.com
