PR9.NET December 22, 2006 - Poconos PA – Pennsylvania's beautiful landscape and myriad of interesting cities provide travelers with something to suit their every whim, whether it's skiing, shopping, attending the theater, reveling in our nation's rich history, exploring the outdoors, or just relaxing in a world-class luxury spa.

Dotted with mountains, farms, and big city excitement, choosing just one of Pennsylvania's great destinations isn't always easy. That's precisely when the friendly, professional travel specialists at PennsylvaniaReservations.com are an invaluable resource.

PennsylvaniaReservations.com has fast become a top source for hotel and travel information throughout the entire state. Their trusted official Pennsylvania specialists help travelers narrow down the myriad of choices and lend advice about what might best suit their individual style.

Pennsylvania, the perfect place for the outdoor enthusiast, boasts more than 100 state parks and numerous national parks perfect for cross country skiing, hiking, or sightseeing. The Pocono Region is the ideal place to spend a romantic weekend in a world-famous couples-only resort while Erie offers unmatched natural splendor. Touring vineyards or exploring the magnificence of Longwood Gardens in the beautiful Brandywine Valley, makes a lovely day for couples and families alike. Philly, Pittsburgh, and Harrisburg provide non-stop nightlife, a wide array of fine cuisines, and sightseeing that even the most discriminating traveler will appreciate. Gettysburg offers a fascinating look into Pennsylvania's rich Civil War and Revolutionary War history while Lancaster offers a laid-back pace where gallivanting about at a local farmers market, regional festival or antique shop is the preferred way of life.

Along with the magnificent sightseeing and fun-filled days, travelers will find a restful night sleep throughout the state. Whether guests are looking for a clean, comfortable hotel room, an all-inclusive resort, or a luxurious over-the-top suite in Center City, PennsylvaniaReservations.com will work with travelers to ensure every stay is memorable.
