With a myriad of things to see and do like skiing, snowtubing, shopping, and sightseeing, Erie Pennsylvania makes for the perfect winter getaway.

PR9.NET December 28, 2006 - Erie, PA – Erie is the perfect place to relax and unwind for a memorable winter getaway. The wide array of things to see and do in Erie has made the region one of the best winter vacation getaways in the state.

Topping the list for winter adventure in Erie, PA are the Splash Lagoon Indoor Waterpark Resort, one of the largest waterparks in the United States and the nearby the Peek n Peak Ski Resort where skiing and snow tubing excitement abound. A popular winter pastime in Erie is photographing the stunning natural winter wonder at places like Presque Isle, a national natural landmark which is home to seven miles of sandy beaches.

Touring wineries along the Lake Erie Wine Trail, which boasts nearly a dozen charismatic wineries, is a delightful way to spend a chilly winter afternoon. Erie is the third largest grape-producing region in the United States and draws visitors year round from wide and far. For those seeking a little culture visiting the dinner theater or the Erie Philharmonic is highly recommended.

Several nice, clean hotels as well as deluxe resorts and picturesque bed and breakfasts are available in the Erie region for travelers to choose from.
